

Angelic Musings y Virtudes

An invigorating new flavor for our desensitized palettes

By Edeli Tureygua | Sept. 18, 2025

It should be clearer to us than ever that the Earth is in dire need of CHANGE. No matter our race, gender, nationality, religion, political affiliation, or economic background, at some point we have probably sincerely wondered ‘what is wrong with this world?’. Because we’ve either lived it ourselves or seen it around us: a suffering that has made us question the reality of life on a Planet plagued by polarization, greed, corruption, inequity, violence, oppression, and an overall disconnection from our [true] Nature and from the collective All (i.e. all Life). And with no signs of conditions improving, many of us have simply resigned ourselves to accept the current fate of our world as “normal” – but wide-spread suffering should never have become the status quo.

Founded upon the principles of Peace, Love, and Freedom, Angelic Musings y Virtudes serves as a much needed paradox during this backwards time. It is:

unorthodoxly Divine;
mundanely magical;
wholeheartedly logical;
bountifully beneficent; and uniquely unifying –

a reflection of it’s founder, Edeli Tureygua. The organization aims to flip the script and change the current paradigm of suffering into one of Connection – with ourSelves, each other, the Divine, and the Earth. It is a temple created to honor our home Planet as well as a sanctuary meant to uplift and protect the diverse Life that resides upon It. Our mission is to empower traditionally marginalized individuals and communities which bear most of the world’s suffering by fostering and facilitating restorative self-elevation (i.e. self-improvement), resilient community building, and socio-ecological regeneration meant to increase healing communion with Nature.

Nicole M. says about the organization and it’s founder “You are Love in its fullest form, Edeli. This is a bright and tangible dream for all that could be toward our collective joy and liberation. Thank you for all that you are and for sharing so much with us ♥”.

Originally established in 2023 as an LLC in South Florida before being re-branded as Angelic Musings y Virtudes, the organization currently stands as an unincorporated nonprofit while waiting to obtain the resources needed (minimum $6,650) to officially establish as a 501(c)(3) public charity on the island of Puerto Rico. Since our unofficial status makes it challenging for the organization to obtain funding through formal grants at the moment, Angelic Musings y Virtudes is initially relying on donations to cover as much of the start-up costs ($2,309,332) and operating expenses for the 1st year ($5,460,668) as possible. However, once partially or fully operational the organization can count on funding from grants and earned income from program service revenue ranging between about $9,715,105 up to over $126 million.

For those that are hungry to learn more about this nascent organization, the landing page of our plan site serves as a hearty appetizer in a[n optional] three-course meal – it may fill those with small appetites who find they are satisfied with just a bite. And it contains everything you need to know at first glimpse about the organization (and perhaps a little more).

For those left craving something richer, with more volume and substance: our business plan serves as the main course. It is packed with background information and details that may overwhelm those not in need of such minutia, so it is recommended to take in only as much as is needed to satisfy one’s appetite – lest you get sick from over-consumption.

And for those with a sweet tooth and curiosity yet to satisfy, a meeting with the founder serves as dessert – a fluid and sumptuous yet unassuming treat with layers of mysterious flavor, a slight spice like ginger, and just the right amount of sweetness. If you’re lucky, you may even find gold within your share. To reserve your portion, contact us and request a meeting and/or the password to view our full plan.

If you wish to support our charitable work (and earn some good fortune, or karma, in the process), you can do so by texting the phrase ‘ANGELIC’ to 53-555 to send a donation or by visiting our website to officially join their support network.
